NEW YEAR'S DAY WALK

Following Mass at 10am, twelve of us set out for our New Year's Day walk. (We had the annual photograph taken by our very own Parish photographer – Ruth). Mud and brambles were encountered and a cold wind blew at times but we made it back to St Theresa's to mulled wine and warm apple juice. Cath, Keith and non-walkers waited patiently for our return and we all sat down to homemade soup which was definitely 5 star standard. Mary Berry would agree! A great get together and a super start to the New Year. Thank you to Cath and Fel for the soup and to Keith for organising the event. Thank you also to everybody who contributed Christmas cakes, chocolates mince pies We are so lucky to have a great parish community.

St Theresa's Church hall and its facilities are available for hire at very reasonable charge. Call Bob Frost –01274 883440
