afternoon getting back to some normality. YEAH!!!!!! We had 81 adults through the door. There was lots of chatting as well as buying and 75 soft toys left the building in the care of some happy children. Our total to date is £600. Well done everybody and THANK YOU to those who contributed items, those who organised, those who ran the stalls and especially parishioners and the people of Queensbury who supported us on the day.

We maybe a small parish but by all working together we achieve great things.
Well done everybody.
