Here at CAFOD Leeds we are looking for volunteers in a range of roles to help us tackle world poverty and the climate crisis. You can help us: in the office, helping with admin and correspondence: in your Parish, organizing collections and sharing our campaigns: in Diocesan schools, leading assemblies and workshops: in communications, gathering stories about the inspiring work our volunteers do around the Diocese: as an MP Correspondent, ensuring our MPs hear the voices of those in our global family who need support. All these roles can be flexible to your interests and skills and can be done remotely from wherever you are.

If you are interested in getting involved phone: 07748514641 or email: leeds@cafod.org.uk
