There is a receipt on the notice board from Calderdale Lighthouse Charity for the cheque of £120 which was the balance of last year's Smartie appeal. In total we have given them £470 which will have been a great help with the work the charity does with disadvantaged families. Thank you to everyone who has helped to raise this wonderful amount.

Calderdale Lighthouse is a wonderful charity set up by three ladies who wanted to help needy families. The referrals from various organisations keep them very busy. At the moment they are in urgent need of :-

- moses baskets,
- cots,
- prams
- baby items/ clothes /blankets
- toiletries – especially packs for young mums in hospital with new babies.

Can you help or do you know of anyone who has any of the above items? Please contact me and I will collect from you and deliver them to their base at Holmfield. I do not mind washing and cleaning items! Christine R.

My contact details are at the end of the bulletin.

Clarification of the SUNDAY OBLIGATION – The Bishops, now having reflected on the current situation in England and Wales, recognise that the causes and effects of the pandemic are still present to such a degree that the absolute duty for all to freely attend the Sunday Eucharistic Celebration cannot yet be fulfilled. In the Halifax Deanery we will do all we can to keep you safe when you visit Church.

World Youth Day 2023: Aged 16-30?
