Please pray for Sean Elliott as he prepares for his ordination to the Diaconate on Thursday 29th April at St Malachy's Church. Sean undertook the greater part of his formation for the priesthood at the Venerable English College, Rome, before starting his pastoral placement at St Columba's and St Malachy's last September.

Hopefully this warmer weather is a sign of better days of normal life. Priests are still not encouraged to do home visits with communion or go to Care Homes so our ministry is still restricted at the moment.

Fel Kennedy

"I am the good shepherd" Jesus says. "I know my own and my own know me, as the Father knows me and I know the Father." This is the attitude through which a living relationship with Jesus is realized: he knows the depths of our heart: he knows our merits and our defects, the projects we have carried out and the hopes that have gone unfulfilled. But he accepts us as we are, even with our sins, so as to heal us, to forgive us. He accompanies us. In turn, we are called to know Jesus. This implies an encounter with him, an encounter which spurs the desire to follow him, abandoning self-referential attitudes and setting out on new paths, indicated by Christ himself and open to vast horizons. Pope Francis

Our charity for the coming year is Calderdale Lighthouse – a none profit charity supporting vulnerable and disadvantaged families in the local community.

PASCHAL CANDLE MYSTERY –

I have contacted the Archives at the Diocese again in the hope of solving the mystery of how a Paschal Candle presented to Rev A. J. Saxton in Otley should be in our Parish. Do you know anything?
