ST THERESA'S PARISH WORKING DAY

Last Saturday 15 members of the Parish turned up in the cold to take part in a working day – damaged walls were touched up, the bar was emptied and tidied up, windows were cleaned, window sill repainted, doors varnished, stonework was pointed, handrails painted, the garden weeded, statues cleaned, geraniums pruned and repotted, moss was either removed and/or killed and window frames painted. It was a great effort by everyone concerned, the atmosphere was brilliant and all the planned work carried out. Thank you all very much indeed for all your efforts, it was great to see.

P.S. Who knew that the Snow Warden was also a whizz at mending vacuum cleaners – thank you Peter M.
