Message from Fr. Bob

The Baptism of the Lord reminds us of our own Baptismal calling that we are called for action in helping others when and where we can. As a light-bearer the Holy Spirit will often help us with the right words and sentiments to bring encouragement to others on our pilgrimage to our final destiny.

According to the latest Government and Diocesan guidance communal worship is allowed. We shall have to see what level of restrictions we find ourselves in as the weeks go by under this third lockdown. Some of our parishioners are still shielding at the moment and we wish them well in our prayers.
